The shareholder with voting rights may submit individual proposed resolutions during the Shareholders' Meeting.
2. The amended agenda for the Shareholders' Meeting or the proposed resolutions relating to items which are already part of the agenda, as per paragraph 1, will be published at least fifteen days prior to the date set for the Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the modalities used to publish the notice of call.
The new resolutions relating to items already on the agenda will be made available to the public in accordance with Art. 125-ter, par. 1, when the notice relating to the submission of same is published. The deadline is dropped to seven days in the event the Shareholders' Meeting is called pursuant to Art. 104, par. 2, or in the event the Shareholders' Meeting is called pursuant to Art. 125-bis, par. 3.
3. The agenda may not be amended in relation to those topics which, by law, the shareholders must resolve on as proposed by the administrative body or based on a project or a report prepared by them, other than those indicated in Art. 125-ter, par. 1.
4. Shareholders who request that items be added to the agenda as per paragraph 1 above must prepare a report which provides the reasons why the additional items are being proposed for discussion or the reasons why new resolutions relating to items already on the agenda are being presented. The report must be sent to the administrative body by the deadline for the request that items be added. The administrative body will make the report available to the public, along with its evaluations, when the notice of a changed agenda is published or presented in accordance with Art. 125-ter, par. 1.
5. If the administrative body or, if the latter fails to act, the Board of Statutory Auditors, the Supervisory Board or the Internal Control Committee, do not follow through with the amendment of the agenda with the new items or proposals presented pursuant to paragraph 1, the court, after having heard the members of the administrative and control bodies and if the refusal seems unjustified, may order the amendment to be made by issuing a decree. The decree will be published in accordance with Art. 125-ter, par. 1.

 2. Shareholders may resolve to take action against the directors in relation to the examination and discussion of the year-end financial statements, even if said discussion is not one of the items on the agenda, when the actions in question relate to that period.
 3. Derivative action may also be taken on the basis of a resolution approved by the Board of Statutory Auditors with a two-thirds majority.
 4. The action may be taken within five years from the time a director is no longer in office.
 5. The approval of the derivative action results in the termination of the office held by those directors party to the action, as long as the resolution is approved by at least one-fifth of the share capital. In this instance, the shareholders will appoint substitute directors.
 6. In accordance with the first and second paragraphs of Article 2393-bis the company may choose not to proceed with the derivative action as long as the shareholders approve the motion and as long as, in the case of joint stock company, a minority of the shareholders representing at least one-fifth of the share capital or, in the case of a listed company, one-twentieth of the share capital, does not object."
