This procedure (the “Procedure”) was adopted by IGD SIIQ S.p.A. The Procedure was adopted by IGD pursuant to Article 19 of EU Regulation n. 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the EU Council of 16 April 2014 relating to market abuse (the Market Abuse Regulation – “MAR”), as amended by the Articles 7 et seq of EU Commission Delegated Regulation 2016/522 of the European Commission of 17 December 2015 and Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2016/523 of the European Commission of 10 March 2016, as well as Legislative Decree. 58/98 (hereinafter “TUF”) and the “Regulations for the implementation of Legislative Decree n. 58 of 24 February 1998” approved by Consob in Resolution n. 11971 of 14 May 1999, as amended (hereinafter the “Issuers’ Regulation”).

4 Definitions

For the purposes of this Procedure, the following definitions shall apply:

4.1 “Privileged information”: information of a precise nature concerning – directly or indirectly - the Company or one or more of the financial instruments issued by the Company which has not been made public and which, if disclosed to the public, could have a significant impact on the price of these financial instruments or the price of related derivative financial instruments.

Information is considered to be of a precise nature if:

- it refers to a set of existing or reasonably foreseeable circumstances or an actual or reasonably foreseeable event;
- is specific enough to allow for conclusions about the possible impact of the before mentioned set of circumstances or event on the price of the financial instruments or related derivative financial instruments.

In the event of a lengthy process which will likely cause a particular event or circumstance to materialize, this future circumstance or event, as well as the intermediate steps linked to the future event or circumstance, are deemed information of a precise nature.

An intermediate step of a lengthy process is considered privileged information if it meets all the above criteria for privileged information on a stand-alone basis.

Price sensitive information or information that if disclosed to the public would probably have a significant impact on the prices of financial instruments or derivative financial instruments is viewed as information that an investor would likely use to make an investment decision.

4.2 “Insiders”:

- a) the members of IGD's Board of Directors and Board of Statutory Auditors;
- b) executives and managers of IGD who have regular access to Privileged Information and have the power to make managerial decisions which may influence IGD's development and future prospects, identified by the Chairman of the Board of Directors and/or the Company's Chief Executive Officer, jointly or severally.

4.3 “Persons Closely Related to Insiders”:

- a) spouse or partner with legal rights as a spouse under Italian law;

of the transaction;

4.4 “Significant Shareholders”: anyone who holds an equity investment, calculated in accordance with Art. 118 of the Issuers' Regulations¹, amounting to at least 10% of IGD's voting shares (or the limit set under current law), and any other party who controls IGD.

4.5 “Persons Closely Related to Significant Shareholders”:

- b) legal persons, partnerships, and trusts managed directly or indirectly by a Significant Shareholder or one of the persons specified in letter a) above, who jointly or separately have asset management functions;
- c) legal persons controlled directly or indirectly by a Significant Shareholder or one of the persons specified in letter a) above;
- d) partnerships whose economic interests are largely the same as those of a Significant Shareholder or one of the persons specified in letter a) above;
- e) trusts instituted with the Significant Shareholder or one of the persons specified in letter a) above as a beneficiary.

4.6 “Closely Related Persons”: jointly the Persons Closely Related to Insiders and the Persons Closely Related to Significant Shareholders.

4.7 “MAR Material Transactions”: transactions involving the shares or bonds issued by IGD, as well as derivatives and related financial instruments, as defined in art. 19 of MAR and art. 10 of the Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2016/522. 4.8 “IR Material Transactions”: transactions involving the purchase, sale, subscription or exchange of IGD's shares or financial instruments linked to IGD's shares pursuant to Art. 152-septies of Issuers' Regulations.

4.9 “Disclosure Officers”: IGD's Head of Legal and Corporate Affairs and Investor Relations Officer. Disclosures can be made to the Disclosure Officers in one of the following ways:
